

AGREEMENT MADE THIS _____ DAY OF _____, 1979

Between Robert Brocklehurst, John Garber, John Guyon, James Steele Jr., and Richard Sambenedetto, all of Philadelphia and Edward Devlin of Cornwell Heights (referred to as HARC) and the University of Pennsylvania Amateur Radio Club: Agree that:

HARC (Holmesburg Amateur Radio Club) will:

1. Maintain ownership of certain radio equipment, specifically two meter FM repeater and accessories as listed in the attached appendix.
2. Contract for the installation of the repeater antenna by a mutually agreed upon contractor and pay same.
3. Be responsible for the necessary upkeep of the equipment once installed. HARC will provide copies of the instruction manual to the University of Pennsylvania Amateur Radio Club (UPARC) and HARC will make the repeater access code available to licensed amateurs, Technician Class or above, who are designated by UPARC as control operators.
4. Once the repeater is installed, should interference with other services be evident, HARC will take necessary steps to correct the problem. These steps will be reviewed and endorsed by UPARC Technical Committee. Any additional modifications to be made to the repeater will be submitted by HARC to the UPARC Technical Committee for review and approval, prior to installation.
5. Incur financial responsibility for the month telephone and power company bills, should these bills be assessed.
6. Allow the University of Pennsylvania Amateur Radio Club to designate two of its members as control operators of the repeater. These control operators are to have the power granted them under the appropriate sections of the FCC rules and regulations governing operation of two meter repeater stations.
7. Allow UPARC full access to the repeater and its physical plant for purposes of inspection. This inspection to be made in the presence of a member of HARC who was given advance notice of the inspection.
8. In case of interference with outside services; Allow UPARC to submit a list of technical standards that the repeater must meet in addition to the technical standards issued by the FCC (Federal Communications Commission). Failure of the repeater to meet FCC Standards will result in the appropriate FCC Action. Failure of the repeater to meet UPARC standards will be sufficient for the UPARC Technical Committee to take action to suspend the operation of the repeater until corrections are made.
9. Incur financial responsibilities for the cost of maintenance associated with the operation of the repeater.
10. Deposit a minimum of two hundred and fifty dollars in a trust account as a bond for damages.
11. Make the use of the repeater open to all licensed radio amateurs regardless of their membership in any radio club.

12. Provide a complete list of members of HARC that will be allowed access to the machine. These members to be no more than five persons. All persons who have access to the repeater must attach their signatures to a log to be kept at the physical location of the repeater. This log is to contain the date, time, name of person(s) who have made access to the repeater, reason for said access, and a detailed description of all operations or tests performed, and by whose authorization these operations were made.
13. Agree that violations of any of the terms of this agreement will be seen as sufficient grounds for its termination.

The University of Pennsylvania Amateur Radio Club will:

1. Provide a building site located at High Rise North, 39th and Locust Walk, Philadelphia, PA for the installation and operation of an amateur radio two meter repeater station, antenna, and required accessories.
2. Allow for the installation of an unlisted telephone line for the singular purpose of controlling the repeater station.
3. Provide an AC power circuit with a minimum of 15 amp service and emergency power capability for the singular purpose of powering the repeater station, provide access to the physical plant of the repeater for up to five persons designated by HARC. These persons shall be properly registered with appropriate University of Pennsylvania offices to allow not more than three persons at any one time to gain access to the physical plant of the repeater, allow HARC to remove equipment mentioned in this agreement and listed in the appendix attached, should this agreement be terminated.

The term of this agreement shall run for a continuous period of six months to be automatically renewed on each six months anniversary unless written notice to the contrary is present to both parties at least thirty days prior to the effect of such notice.

The parties of this agreement concur with its terms and sign their names below.....
